Type of Supervision: Supervised Release

Date Supervision Commenced: February 8, 2002

PETITIONING THE COURT

- ☐ To extend the term of supervision for Years, for a total term of Years.
☒ To modify the conditions of supervision as follows. The addition of the following special condition(s):

The defendant is to be confined to his residence for a period of 60 days commencing at the direction of the U.S. Probation Office. The defendant shall be required to be at this residence at all times except for approved absences for gainful employment, community service, religious services, medical care, educational or training programs and at other such times as may be specifically authorized by the U.S. Probation Office. The defendant shall wear an electronic monitoring device and follow electronic monitoring procedures. The defendant shall permit the probation officer access to the residence at all times and maintain a telephone at the residence without any custom services or portable, cordless equipment. The defendant shall comply with any other specific conditions of home confinement as the probation officer requires. The defendant shall pay the costs of electronic monitoring, specifically $3.26 per day.

You shall submit your person, residence, and place of business, vehicle or any other premises under your control to a search on the basis that the Probation Officer has reasonable belief that contraband or evidence of a violation of the conditions of release may be found. The search must be conducted in a reasonable manner and at a reasonable time. Your failure to submit to a search may be grounds for revocation. You shall inform any other residents that the premises may be subject to search pursuant to this condition.

CAUSE

The offender tested positive for methamphetamine on April 5, 2007. He admitted smoking methamphetamine, "crystal meth" on April 3, 2007. The U.S. Probation Office in the District of New Jersey is recommending a modification of conditions to include sixty days of home confinement and a search condition. Mr. Zoleta has waived his right to a hearing and signed a modification of supervision conditions (Form 49), to include sixty days home confinement and a search condition.

Request for Reassignment

Dear Mr. Jackson:

On March 22, 2000, the above captioned defendant was originally sentenced by the Honorable U.S. District Judge John W. Bissell to 25 months custody to be followed by a supervised release term of five years.

Inasmuch as Arturo Zoleta has violated the conditions of his supervised release, we kindly request that your office reassign this matter for judicial administration. Please forward the enclosed request for modification of conditions to the newly assigned judge, and advise this office of said assignment.

Should you require any additional information, questions, or concerns, please do not hesitate to contact the undersigned at (973) 357-4089. Thank you in advance for your anticipated cooperation.

Sincerely,

CHRISTOPHER MALONEY, Chief
U.S. Probation Officer
